A Step Into A New Dimension

Another year has come and gone
The key Dimensions must carry on.
To strive for the best
And forget the rest.
It is plain to see
You're the best you can be.

Grades 3 and 4 enjoy lunch.

Priya Clark, Missy Guynn, Audrey Cocke, and Holly Jones enjoy reading.

Students enjoy Sutherlin's first Bible Class.

Parents enjoy K-4 performance of "Rock 'n Roll ABC's"

Lower school enjoys a visit from Snoopy.

Brings Welcomed Additions

Jon Hundley anticipates a snack from the new vending machine.

Juniors and seniors sponsor car wash for prom.

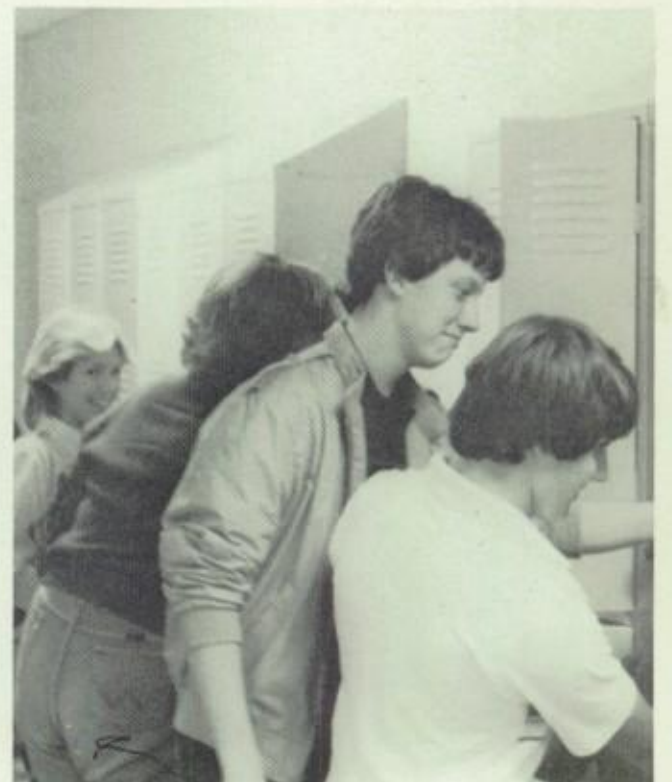

Latin students work through a test.

Students relax around Sutherlin's new activity bus.

Journalism students arrange lay-out for newspaper.

Upper school is pleased to have lockers.

Faculty at Work

Mrs. Law is hard at work.

Mrs. Farley enjoys the faculty and board dinner.

Mrs. Barksdale supervises Jennifer, Tara, and Kathy.

Mrs. Crider takes a break in the lounge.

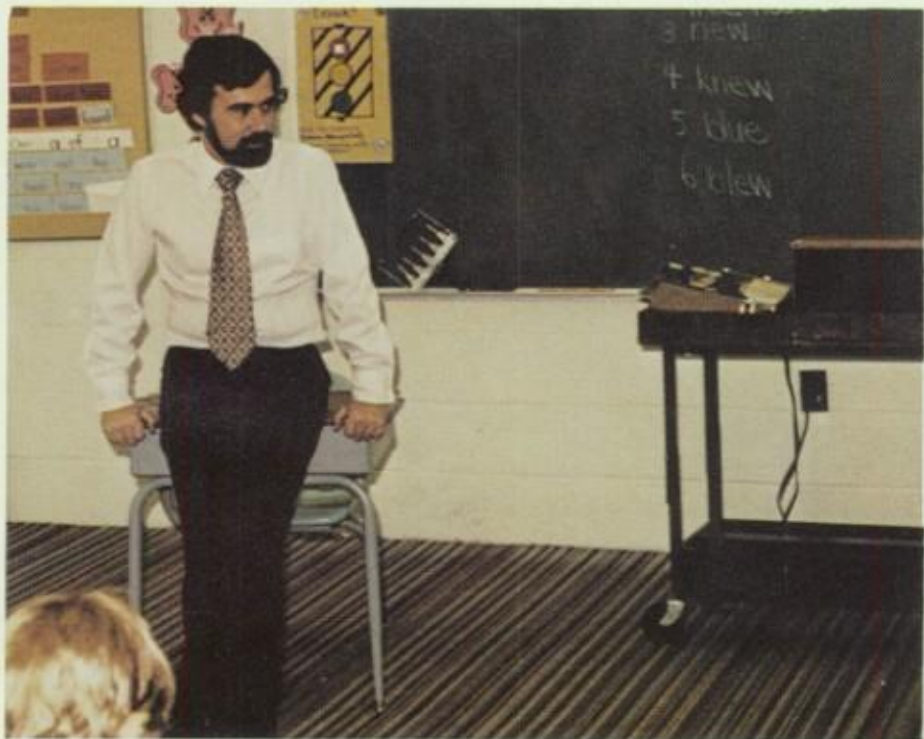

Mrs. Otersen helps Chris with his work.

Mrs. Hendricks checks the books.

Coach Murphy after a hard day.

Mr. Heffinger teaches second graders to enjoy music.

Mrs. Slayton lectures the eighth grade English class.

Staff in Action!

Where There Is Love

Where there is love
there is a song
To help when things
are going wrong.
Where there is love
there is a smile
To make all things
seem more worthwhile.
Oh, blest are they
who walk in love.
They also walk
with God above.
And when man walks
with God again,
There shall be peace
on earth for all men.

Up, up and away!

Love . . . The greatest gift of all.

The Rose

Some say love it is a river, that drowns the tender reed.

Some say love it is a razor,
that leaves your soul to bleed.

Some say love it is a hunger,
that is an endless aching need.

I say love it is a flower, and you its only seed.

What do I want?

When the night has been too lonely, and the road has been too long.

When you think love is only for the lucky, and only for the strong.

Just remember in the winter, far beneath the bitter snow lies the seed.

That in the spring, with the sun's love

becomes the Rose.

THE LAST DIMENSION

Class of '84 poses one more time together. Left to right are Mim, Eddie, Lynn, Tommy, Janet, Mike, and Jennifer.

Tommy and Lynn smile peacefully for a change.

Janet and Mim are hard at work.

Consolation

There is never a day
so dark and dreary,
But God can make
it bright.
There is never a night
so black and void
But God can send
His light.
So take to Him
those hopeless things
That are tearing
at your life . . .
The heart that puts its
trust in God
Finds help to meet the strife.

Board of Trustees

A major responsibility of the Board of Trustees is reflected in the word trustee for the school is in fact held in trust. The trustees have in their custody the integrity of institution, its standing, and reputation. They hold in trust its future as well as its present, and their collective judgement will effect it as an institution of service to the constituents who are to come. The trustees have three primary areas of responsibility. First, they all set basic policies which include the educational policy of the school, the scale of tuition payments, the salary, etc. Secondly, they have the responsibility for the physical property of the school, for the raising of funds necessary to provide the needed physical facilities and for the satisfactory management of the school's operating funds. Thirdly, the trustees set the direction the school should take in order to accomplish its long-range objectives. It is the responsibility of the Headmaster to carry out the policies established by the board and to serve as the professional educational leader for the school which literally includes the internal administration of the school.

Ronald Thompson delivers message at board meetings.

Mrs. Beth Boles and Mrs. Cindy Hyatt are co-presidents of the Patrons Association.

Patrons and teachers visit at a meeting at Mrs. Beth Boles' house.

Office

Mr. Shelton plans our activities for the future.

Headmaster J. Compton Shelton has now completed his fifth year at Sutherlin Academy. We salute his hard work and thank him for the long hours he has spent in our behalf. We feel fortunate to have had his expertise and his years of administrative experience put to practice at Sutherlin as we all strive to make our school an enriching and uplifting place in which to learn. We also salute Mrs. Quisenberry, the school secretary. We feel fortunate once again to have such a lady in the front office, and we are reminded of her value as we watch her patiently and kindly greeting all who enter. Indeed, this combination in our office will be and has been a great asset to our school.

Mrs. Marcy Heffinger prepares teacher handbooks.

Mrs. Quisenberry pauses from her work.

Mrs. Hall files records for the school.

Chapel

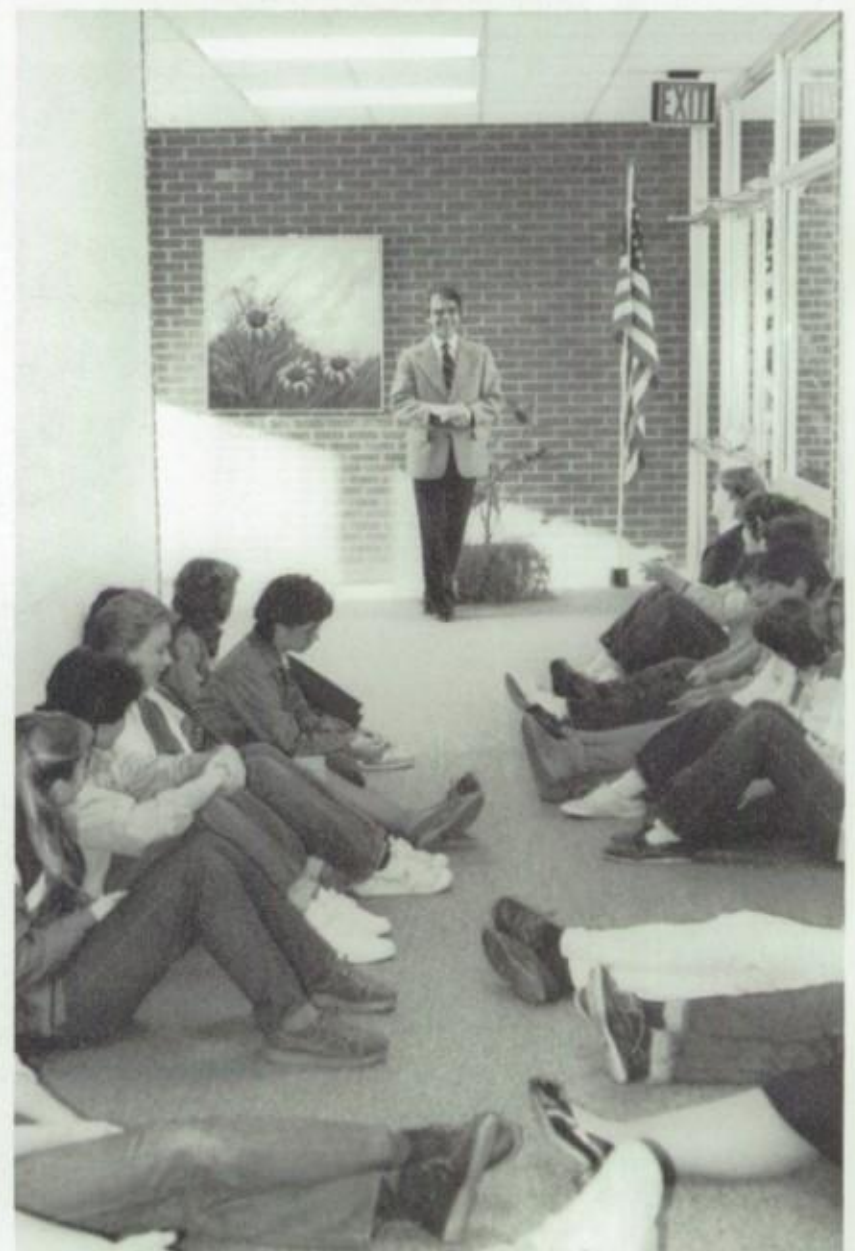

Three days a week, every week, the students at Sutherland Academy gather to listen to devotions. The devotions are short, but they have a special meaning to each of the students. The students and the staff take turns having devotions. Usually devotions consist of scriptures from the Bible or verses found in the newspaper or books. After devotions, students stand to say the Lord's Prayer and the Pledge of Allegiance.

Students listen as Lynette Jennings reads a poem.

Lynette Jennings waits for attention from the students.

Mr. Shelton happily gives the announcements for the day.

A Dimension of Extras

Halloween Spooks Are Out!

Juniors and Seniors quickly serve a customer.

Lynn Pruitt and Gina Johnson work at the bake sale.

Mrs. Crider and her son, Forest, smile for the camera.

Children get ready for the costume contest.

Costume winners are left to right: Stephanie Hyatt, Michelle Grant, Mike Pritchett, Libbie Peatross, Cheri Owen, Missie Guynn, Winston Davis, and Audrey Cocke.

J. D. Shelton and Casey Smith work the Pepsi ring toss.

Fourth graders sponsor the pumpkin toss.

Robin Dishman gets hit with a pie.

Robbie and Douglas work the Robot Toss.

Children try to win cakes at the Cake-Walk.

The Stew is Back!

Last year the brunswick stew was not held. But this year has seen its return! On October 21, 1983 the Patrons sold the stew at the school. Mr. Jim Bradley contributed the recipe and helped make the stew. Also helping were Mr. Terry Owen, Mr. Berley Anderson, Mr. John Hylton, Mr. Roy Lester, Mike Hangelia, and Eddie Emerson. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Mahoney organized the stew.

A bake sale was held at the same time in the gym.

Mr. Berley Anderson and Mr. Terry Owen stir the stew.

Carole Hylton, Charlotte Wood, Sheila Peterson, Mary Jo Whitlow, Tracey Whitlow, Lisa Hoosier, Susan Burnette, and Mike Hangelia smile before beginning their tour of the Sutherlin Mansion.

Daren Hall and Maria Brann look at the Mansion Christmas Tree.

The holiday season at Sutherlin Academy has been a busy one! On December 8, the chorus went caroling to Roman Eagle Nursing Home and to Holiday Village.

On Friday, December 16, the high school students toured the Sutherlin Mansion and viewed the splendor of its Christmas decorations.

Later that Friday night, the school Christmas party was held in the gym. The second graders, under the direction of Mrs. Carolyn Crider, presented a skit entitled "Santa's Workshop". A collection of students' literary work was presented to the library and these students contributing to the work were given a certificate.

The evening of December 20, saw a dance sponsored by the SGA held in the school library.

The second graders put on the play "Santa's Workshop" for the Christmas program.

Graduation

Eddie Caviness, Penny Brown, and Randy Yarbrough smile happily as they display their diplomas.

The Reverend Rick Withrow delivers the message at the Baccalaureate Service.

Lynn, Janet, Jennifer, and Angie begin to wonder how many more guests they will have to serve.

The graduating class of 1983 smiles as they look to their prospective future. Though the class was few in number, they were very supportive. All three seniors participated in basketball. Randy also played soccer and baseball. They felt extra-curricular activities were just as important as a good education.

For the Baccalaureate service, they chose Calvary Church of the Nazarene, the church Randy attended, pastored by the Reverend Rick Withrow. The ceremony began at three in the afternoon of June 5, and concluded at 4:30. After the message was delivered, the junior marshals served refreshments to the guests.

On Thursday night, June 9, 1983, the traditional "Pomp and Circumstance" was played on the organ by Mrs. Linda Pulley, as the seniors nervously marched toward the stage. Penny led the invocation, Eddie had the farewell remarks, and Randy had the benediction. The girls ensemble, directed by Miss Beth Argyrakis, presented the music. Marshall Coleman was the primary speaker at the graduation exercises. Penny also presented a 35mm camera to publications for the senior gift. After many presentations of awards, the seniors received their long-awaited diplomas from the headmaster.

Junior marshals for 1983 were Lynn Pruitt, Janet Handy, Angie Payne, and Jennifer Bradley.

Speakers Ronald Thompson, Marshall Coleman, and John Heard during graduation.

Randy Yarbrough, Eddie Caviness, and Penny Brown begin to relax as they prepare to receive their diplomas.

Cindy Gravely, daughter of a missionary to Brazil, speaks to the Spanish Club.

Joy, the clown gives helpful tips on nutrition.

A representative from the Danville Fine Arts Museum tells the students the history of the Sutherlin Mansion.

The Green Tree

This year's yearbook has been put together by the eighth grade, ninth grade, and many Juniors and Seniors, under the direction of Mrs. Deborah Slayton.

With all of the many new additions to our school: lockers, the bus, the vending machines, and two elective classes: Bible and Latin, the publication class chose the theme of the Green Tree to be New Dimensions.

This year not only marked another year of publication for the Green Tree, but a "splash" of color was added with eight pages being in color.

A lot of concentration is needed to work on the newspaper.

This year, the Sampler staff is made up mostly of students who first wanted to take computer science. Even though the majority of the students are new to the newspaper, they have learned many new things about printing a newspaper. Mrs. Deborah Slayton, with the help of Mrs. Cheryl Southard, has helped the paper greatly. The editor of this year's paper is Andrew Wood and the sports editor is Mike Hangelia. They have tremendously helped the students on the staff to produce a good paper.

Coach Murphy has pre-game talk with the team.

Mike Hangelia digs in and waits for the pitch.

After the first three games, it seemed that Sutherlin was headed for a losing season. That was anything but right. The teams' continuing efforts paid off. With the win over Hargrave, Sutherlin took off. Sutherlin lost only one game out of their next eight games. The Sutherlin Squires ended the season 7-4. Even though they had a slow start, the Squires pulled through. With doubles and triples from Eddie Emerson, Daren Hall, Mike Hangelia, Paul Shrewsbury, and Randy Yarbrough, the Squires put a winning season in the books.

Going Down The Slopes!

Mr. Murphy smiles in delight as he goes to the lodge for lunch.

Thank goodness I'm finally off the slopes!

Look at me!

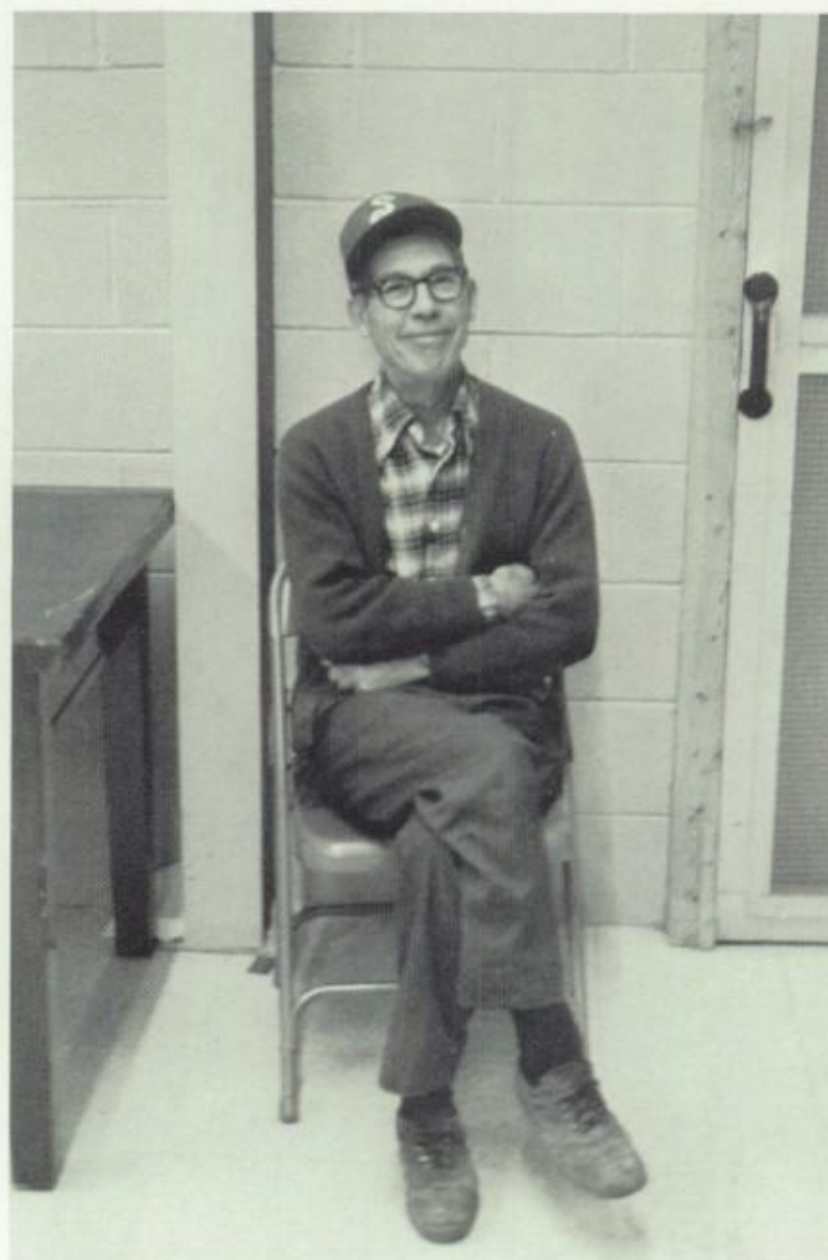

Let's hurry to the slopes!

We Salute You . . .
